Instructions

1. Score one of the Night of Navy curved corner rectangles at 1/2" on each side. On both long sides, cut inwards on the score line up to the intersecting score line. Place Tear & Tape Adhesive on the inside of each flap and fold, adhering to the outside, to create the treat tray. See the photo above.
2. Adhere the designer paper curved corner rectangles to the other TWO Night of Navy curved corner rectangles using Multipurpose Liquid Glue. Use a centering ruler to find the center of one of these pieces. Put the pieces back-to-back and make a hole at the top using a 1/4" hole punch.
3. Stamp the sentiment, "Hello" from the Hello Ladybug Stamp Set on the white banner using Night of Navy ink. Adhere the banners together using liquid glue. Punch a hole in the center of the flat side using a 1/8" circle punch.
4. Add Tear & Tape Adhesive along both longer sides of the base, then adhere the TWO rectangle pieces to each side.
5. Thread the Bubble Bath ribbon through the holes of the rectangles then thread the banner on to the ribbon from the back of the banner to the front. Now the ribbon is through the treat and the banner is hanging out on the front facing the right way. Make a bow to close the treat.
6. Stamp the hot air balloon using Bubble Bath and Azure Afternoon ink and the basket using Berry Burst ink. Die cut.
7. Adhere the hot air balloon and the basket to the treat using Stampin' Dimensionals. Adhere the larger cloud to the treat and the the smaller cloud to the balloon directly using liquid glue. Adhere the Berry Burst heart using the same adhesive.
8. Embellish with the pink or white Adhesive-Backed Sequins Trio.
9. Place TWO Lindt chocolates in the tray.
